We are pleased to announce the plans for the Forty-Sixth Anniversary Convention which is scheduled for September 22-25, 2011 at the recently expanded Tropicana Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City. This year's convention program will include some new experiences for those attending and a "new" Tropicana look that includes "The Quarter", the Havana Tower which include 30 unique shops and upscale restaurants and Saturday night music by The Nerds.

James Bradley, best selling author of Fly Boys, Flags of Our Fathers and The Imperial Cruise, will be this year's Convention Luncheon speaker. Bradley has appeared on numerous television programs and is a respected convention speaker.

The convention will include the presentation of the 2011 Larry Gardner Memorial Award to Brendan Binder of Binder Machinery and 2011 William Feather Memorial Award to Rob Earle of Earle Companies. Dick Gardner will be inducted posthumously in the New Jersey Construction Industry Hall of Fame at the Saturday Dinner Dance.

The convention program will also include presentation of the 2011 UTCA Construction Safety Awards on Saturday morning.

Our convention exhibit will open Friday morning, include approximately 125 exhibitors, and be available to attendees during the day on Friday and Saturday morning. A golf outing, in conjunction with the convention, is scheduled for the Thursday of the convention.
